Spotlight Questionnaire

Hi! So, I am the youngest of seven. Never married, no kids. You have heard the saying roles reverse, well I am living that, I have moved back in with my dad to help take care of him. We have just recently had one of my sisters and her family move in with us. They have a dog that has been living here for a few years.

I am a born and raised South Weberite. I have only not lived here for about nine months out of my entire life. Two of the three houses I have lived in are on South Weber Drive. My Dad's house is the first one in the ward on the North side of South Weber Drive.

I am very much an introvert so my ideal treat myself day is a good book, an Icee, and popcorn.

Growing up my Grandma Zora Cook gave my parent the Book of Mormon on tape (for those of you who know what a tape is) so for years every road trip we took we would listen to them; I think we may have worn them out. So, when CDs came out, I do not know if it was my grandma or mom that got us the entire standard works, so we started using them for road trips.

These days Dad, Lorelei, and I tend to watch Come Follow Up on BYUtv

Who do you want to be like when you grow up?

I have always wanted to be like my mom, for such a shy woman she was always willing to help anyone out, she had unfailing kindness and faith, always very proper, sweet, and nonjudgmental, she was the epitome of Christlike behavior.

But if you were to ask me who I would like to meet, Christ of course but also Gilgamesh he was a Sumerian King I have always been fascinated by, Harriet Tubman and Molly Brown two very strong women from very different walks of life who both overcame great struggles, and Emma Thompson she is another very strong woman who has also overcome adversity (very different from the other two women, but still adversity) and still stives two help others.

What is one random interesting fact about you that everyone should know?

For those of you who know me this might not come as a shock, but I am very socially awkward, that is probably part of the reason I have been most comfortable being in the nursery on and off over the last 27 years, so please forgive me if I know you by who your child is not by name it part of my social awkward and knowing our nursery kids names, but only seeing you at drop of and pick up.

In the picture I am the cute one standing by my dad. I have changed since this was taken. Also, my Parents now have 14 grandkids and 6 great grand kids.
